"Fine Rain on Mt. Yoshino," a pair of six-panel folding screens painted by KIKUCHI Hobun, who was known as a master of cherry blossoms. Please enjoy the video created by capturing and recording the environment in Yoshino where this artwork is believed to have been created. This video was produced in collaboration with the National Museum of Modern Art, Tokyo, which holds "Fine Rain on Mt. Yoshino" in its collection. It was created for the "Tokyo Creative Salon," a creative festival held in Tokyo during the cherry blossom season, and was screened in an installation space during the event. This time, the video is being shown back in its home setting.
